RE: Clarifying inadvertent filing of two A1s for same contribution

2016 DEC -1 PM 8:58

On November 2, 2016, we filed an A1 correctly reporting a Transfer In of $8,403.36 from the House Republican Organization.

On November 20, 2016, I inadvertently reported the same contribution, and then a new A1, as an In-Kind Contribution from the same committee, the House Republican Organization. This contribution and the subsequent A1 were filed in error.

Yet, both A1 reports remain on the record with you. I am writing to clarify that there was only one contribution of this amount of money from the House Republican Organization, and it was the Transfer In as reported on November 2, 2016.

Please advise if you have any questions or need additional clarification. Thank you. I can be reached at edwoj54@yahoo.com.
